

Health & Safety Policy Statement

Jenton International Ltd will make all reasonable efforts regarding the health, safety and welfare of its employees and visitors. All actions or activities will be undertaken with due consideration for their outcomes, and such actions and activities must always be conducted with the legal requirements of the Health & Safety Act 1974 and other relevant legislations.

All employees must be given sufficient information, training, and supervision to enable them to perform their duties in a safe and appropriate manner. Any employee who is of the opinion that the work they are being asked to do is outside their ability should ask for further training.

Whilst it is the responsibility of all employees to take reasonable care for their own safety and the safety of others affected by the activities at work, ultimate responsibility for Health and Safety rests with Jenton International Ltd.

The directors and management team of Jenton International Ltd must be fully committed to the implementation of the above policy statement.

This statement is reviewed annually to ensure that it is appropriate for the continuing changes within our business.
